Letter of Reference

This letter is to certify that Mike Tafe has been invited on several occasions as Guest Chef and Consultant to Grand Hyatt Taipei up to his most recent visit in June 2002.

Mike has hosted Australian Food Promotions in the hotel's Bel Air restaurant which have all been very successful and well received in the Taipei market which has prompted the hotel to invite him back each year.

In addition to Mike's public participation in the hotel, he has also spent a considerable amount of time training and developing our culinary team and passing on valuable experience which he has accumulated throughout his career.

He has a strong commitment to excellence in all tasks and duties and gives nothing less than 100% in effort. He has excellent human relation skills with both guests and staff and is well liked and admired by the kitchen team. He is a team player and integrates very well with the local employees. His self-presentation and grooming standards are impeccable and he presents an air of cool, calm confidence in all that he does.

It has been a pleasure working with Mike in the years that I have personally known him and I would recommend him without hesitation to any organization seeking his services as either a consultant or a guest chef.

Yours faithfully
